

Becky Ross

Editor of the Crabbet Journal

I have lived in Sussex since 1989 and currently have two 100% Crabbet mares – Rissaretta (Prince Saraph – Rissetta) and her daughter Rosaphina, by Grecian Idyll. I have been an Arabian horse fan since a teenager and went to my first Arab Horse Show, at Kempton Park, in 1970. I bought Rissaretta in 2002, and the following year, I visited the Crabbet Trade Stand at Malvern, where I learnt about the Crabbet Organisation. I was so shocked to hear about how few Crabbet horses were left, that I joined up! I have gradually been ‘volunteered’ into doing jobs for the Organisation and now run the trade stand and edit the Crabbet Journal.

Becky has been a committee member since 2007 and is currently editor of the Crabbet Journal and organises the Crabbet trade stand. She is passionate about promoting the Crabbet Arabian and owns two Crabbet mares.
